

Internship Control - Global Amsterdam

Are you looking for an internship in an international organisation? Then Atradius is looking for you! We are looking for an Intern at our Global department.

Global is the unit in Atradius dealing with the multinational customer portfolio which often have tailored and more complex service requirements. Towards our target market audience Global has a focused approach based on partnership, underpinned by continuous improvements in our product and service proposition. It is a challenging place to work at, where you will be dealing with colleagues from our offices worldwide, and get familiarised with the needs of a very customized and multinational customer portfolio.

Description

As Intern you will join an international team of nine members that forms a central point within the Global unit. You will be closely working with various commercial teams (sales and account management) that are based in almost all Atradius offices worldwide and you will be responsible for the creation and analysis of standard and non-standard information to support the management of the portfolio and thereby support the teams and the unit's management. Your tasks will be:

- Support in the preparation of various reports and management information which assists the unit in making decisions on business processes and strategies;
- Preparing and analysing financial results, KPIs and processes of units/teams;
- Act as a business partner for the commercial teams and find solutions to their questions and issues;
- Contribute to the development of procedures and guidelines for the internal control of units and the controlling work to be done;
- Timely, consistent and accurate support of the team with all ad hoc and project related information requests.

This position will offer you an international, dynamic and open environment in a true business control role. Next to further developing and applying your technical skills in your control role, a further insight in the credit insurance industry and the particularities of the multinational portfolio will be offered. Together with the Control team, the aim is to add value to the business by providing insights and advice about the portfolio and their customers.

Knowledge, Skills and Experience

- Bachelor (HBO) level (e.g. IBMS, IFM);
- Analytical, structured, logical and clear thinking;
- Fluent in English, second foreign language is a pro;
- User of Excel (knowledge on SQL, MS Access, Business Objects or Hyperion would be a pro);
- Clear communication skills;
- Team player.

What we offer

A nice and challenging environment to learn in an international, dynamic and informal culture. We find it important to give the opportunity to the student to learn and grow in their experience. Next to that you will receive an allowance every month.

Our organisation
